 Thank you

I started getting high as much as I could when ever, I could finally when my wife was not around and late at night when my son was asleep. All this caused very poor decision making. I used very Extremely bad judgement and that's why I am in MDC today. I set out to right my wrongs by first agreeing to cooperate with the D.A. I was willing to testify against my co-Defendant. If our case was to go to trial, I went to fore profit hearing but my knowledge of what was going on in the Drug world was very limited. Reason being I was done with the Drug life after my last arrest in 1999. I was even willing to work as a CI because my days as a Drug dealer was over since 1999 and I don't care how people who live that life think about ME. I Live for my family, My family means more to me then anything in this world. I have been in Jail since August 21, 2007. I have not had any problem with staff or inmates. Out of all my times being lock up, I have only received one ticket and that was for a Cafew Violation. I am not a violent person, I am a very nice person who just had a Hard life.
